

CONNECT and the Consulate General of Canada invite you to:

Canadian Studies in the United States:

A Workshop on Career and Professional Development Opportunities for Doctoral Candidates

This workshop, exclusively for doctoral candidates, department chairs, graduate student advisers, doctoral thesis advisers and Directors/Deans of international and area studies programs, will feature a rich variety of professional development opportunities available to doctoral candidates interested in the study of Canada.

Topics for examination include:

- a comprehensive overview of Canadian Studies programs and scholarly associations throughout the United States higher education community.
- a profile of Canada-focused funding resources to assist the development of teaching, research, publications and exchange programs.
- professional development opportunities — publishing, conferences and exchanges — available to doctoral candidates.
- a wealth of Canadian Studies networking resource contacts in academic and government circles in the United States.

DATE Wednesday, April 8, 2009

TIME Noon – 3:00 p.m.

PLACE Consulate General of Canada
701 Fourth Avenue South
Suite 900
Minneapolis, MN

For directions/local information, contact
Amy McBeth at 612-492-2903 or email
amy.mcbeth@international.gc.ca

Workshop participants will be provided with:

- $125.00 honorarium.
- Luncheon.
- CONNECT portfolio featuring timely information on Canadian Studies in the United States.

To confirm your participation for this workshop, please contact/forward your c.v. to:

Dr. Christopher Kirkey, Ph.D.

Executive Director, CONNECT

*Director, Center for the Study of Canada
State University of New York College at Plattsburgh*

Phone (518) 564-2394

E-mail christopher.kirkey@plattsburgh.edu

The CONNECT workshops are open to citizens of all nations who may be considering undertaking Canadian Studies research and teaching directly in the United States.

Established in October 2003, CONNECT is a national program designed to promote the growth, development and institutionalization of Canadian Studies throughout the U.S. higher education community.

This workshop is undertaken with assistance from Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada and SUNY Plattsburgh.